News and Events

The gradual easing of the Lockdown restrictions during the summer months meant that people were able to start looking to the future. However, the need for caution and patience became even more important as we re-habited our towns and cities and began undertaking tasks less remotely. With The Queen's Chapel open once more for worship on Sunday, the landscape was different and we did not return to our old ways as if nothing had changed!

I remain nervous about what the future will look like and how I will fit into the new landscape, but I am also excited by the new possibilities ahead. The Church is called to proclaim the Gospel afresh in each generation and in light of Covid-19 we will find new opportunities to proclaim the Gospel afresh in The Queen's Chapel. We will make changes and discover new ways of reflecting the love and hope of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

We must be people who watch and pray, who explore the signs of the times, who listen and then respond; people not content to linger in the valley, but instead look with excitement to new horizons. It was pleasing to see the Chapel's doors open for worship on the four Sundays in July, an assurance that life had not gone away! It will be as exciting to reopen on the 27th September 2020.

With best wishes,

Thomas M. B. Woodhouse
