News and Events

This is the beginning of the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ....

Words that I felt very keenly on the first day of the New Year and words that formed part of our reflection in the chapel on Christmas Day: a day that is not the end of the story but the beginning of the journey.

In February the Season of Epiphany gives way to Lent, but our message is one of Christmas all year: the Incarnation happened in a moment of time but it happened for every moment in time.

2021 is going to be a second challenging year of Covid19. What happened during 2020 and continues now, must not to be considered normal, instead we must, when we can, re-establish the patterns in life that give us life. And we will get there!

Indeed, I am writing on the day when the Oxford vaccine was administered for the first time and a month after the first person was vaccinated. It is amazing that ten years of research and trails have been condensed into ten months. We thank God for the men and women who have made this happen.

For now let us give thanks for all those who are working tirelessly across every area of our common life to make our hope a reality. And let us continue to pray for them and for ourselves as we wait and watch and sometimes weep.

As ever,

Thomas
